Chapter 1 by Astrid

She laughed, gazing at the face of her forever friend. Or, at least, she was supposed to be. They had known each other forever, were always together. Until that day. The one that changed everything.

Chapter 2 by SaintSayaka

Hannah looked at the name stitched onto her arm. The thread was still fresh and red from her blood, but hurt significantly less from when Gina had made the first incision. And after all, she couldn't go the rest of the day worrying about the pain. Her transformation would be far too burdensome if she did.

Besides, Gina made her /safe./ What was there to worry about?

"You're looking again," Gina said matter-of-factly, swirling her drink. Hannah met her gaze. The restaurant seemed to fade away.

"Yes."

"Do you really like it that much?"
